Administrative Report-Ms. Raes-Literacy night Thursday. Enrollment is good for next year, 6 students fewer than this year, so far. Fill out CTO. Asking kids not bring popcorn for snack because it is messy, also no Takis, Cheetos and cheezits as well. See snack list suggestions, make sure they are individual sizes. Thank you to those putting in effort for fundraiser.

Teachers Report-Olivia Goodale-Map testing for the final time this year. Reading-talking about cheating on tests and what you would do situations. Students are studying memoirs, they are different than nonfiction. Kids are developing analyzing skills. 8th graders Lit circle reading Boy in Striped Pajamas. Projects include 6 different options to help with individual learning. Challenge to beat the teacher in reading books. Must write summary. Reading competition, who can read more?

Old Business-

CSW encouraged parents to check teacher wishlists and help teachers out with classroom needs. Decorated teachers lounge and had breakfast pizza (Megan Palmgren-Thank you!) Teachers could choose a ticket to mystery dinner or spiritwear. Homeroom volunteers provided drinks and snacks for each class. Anniversary gifts for milestone teachers.

Murder Mystery was a fun community builder, about 38 people participated

Spring fundraiser going on 3/1-3/9 with fun run 3/9. Goal is $15,000. Currently at $11,766. If we meet goal we will slime Ms. Raes.

Conferences meals were 2/14-2/15, meals were delicious, thank you to all the people who made it possible!

Easter classroom parties are Friday, 4/14 in the afternoon.
